

Aristide Cavallé-Coll

200TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

January 29, 2011

Lecture and Presentation of his life and works

- Kurt Lueders, Professor of Organ at the Conservatoire de Plaisir near Versailles and Instructor at the Sorbonne University
- Student of Maurice Duruflé, Edouard Souberielle, André Fleury and Stéphane Caillat
- Vice President of the Association Aristide Cavallé-Coll, editor of La Flûte Harmonique, contributor to The Revised New Groves Dictionary of Music

University of Utah

- Dumke Recital Hall
- 2:00p.m.

Recital of Music for the symphonic organ

- Jesse Eschbach, Chair of Keyboard studies at the University of North Texas College of Music
- For five-years studied the music of Jehan Alain with Marie-Clair Alain and awarded the Prix d'Excellence and Prix de Virtuosité, also the complete organ works of Maurice Duruflé with Marie-Madeleine Duruflé, plus early French and other symphonic organ repertoire
- 2003: published an 800+ page book of all of ACC's original stoplists

Temple Square

- Tabernacle
- 7:30p.m.

Event Sponsored by SALT LAKE CHAPTER AMERICAN GUILD of ORGANISTS